Code of Conduct: Coach

When you join the Variety Village Taekwondo Program you will see staff and coaches who are passionate, purposeful and strong advocates of sport. Our philosophy is to empower athletes to become their best within sport. This empowerment will become the base for athletes as they work to becoming great leaders within their communities.

As coaches, we will model the way for athletes; creating strong structures, standards and assessment methods in an environment that is athlete centered. We also believe that in order to inspire athletes we must also be committed to the sport as Life Long Learners; each of the coaches have set their own goals that challenge their mind, body and spirit.

The Head Coach is directly responsible for the program. The Head Coach along with all Taekwondo coaches are employee of Variety Village and as such follows the policies and procedures outlined by V.V. The coaches also abide by the Code of Ethics and Conduct as outlined by the Coaches of Canada.

Coaches shall:

- Show respect to everyone involved in the program
- Encourage positive behavior during practices/competitions
- Ensure everyone is included in all activities at all times
- Model the way – athletes will follow our lead
- Assume responsibility of monitoring students during practices/competitions
- Monitor and intervene in any and all disagreements between any and all students
- Be involved in the discipline process if necessary
- Trouble shoot where applicable

Parent/Guardian Commitment

As a parent/guardian representing the Variety Village Taekwondo Team, it is important that you support your child in following the Code of Behaviour of an Athlete. With a focused training schedule, it is important that parents/guardians are able to ensure that the athlete arrives on time for practices and competitions assisting your child with the uniform (if necessary) and show the proper respect to the coaches on/off the floor. We encourage parents/guardians to observe practices by using the benches at the back of the Dojang. The mats are for athletes, coaches and volunteer coaches only. Parent/guardian, video taping of practices is not permitted for privacy reasons.

- Drop off and pick up your child under 12 years of age
- Commit to the length of the practice and send participant ready to train
- All athletes are encouraged to participate at competitions and promotion testing.
If I foresee any problems with attendance at these meets I will talk to the Head Coach

Communication

The Club Coaches guide the program to the best of their ability. Should there be any concerns with a coach, student or a volunteer coach, the procedure to follow is;

1. First speak to the coach concerned – if not satisfied

Injuries

Should an athlete sustain an injury either while training with Taekwondo or outside of the operations and activities of Taekwondo and that injury requires medical attention or ongoing physical therapy, it is a requirement that the injury be reported to the Head Coach. This must occur immediately upon learning of the injury. We require a medical doctor's note clearing the athlete to resume training and competition to ensure it is safe for them to do so.

In instances where the injury occurs while training or competing under Taekwondo, the athlete and/or parent guardian are required to report the incident to the Head Coach immediately upon occurrence and an injury incident report shall be filled out to record the details. Concussions and return to play procedures are outlined at www.parachutecanada.org

Behaviour

Variety Village coaches work to create a positive training environment understanding that everyone is an individual, working at their own pace in a team setting. There are behaviours that we can not support including:

- Interrupting coaches or other athletes during training/competitions
- Disrespect of any member of Variety Village and or Taekwondo Team
- Negative or rude comments directed at any member of the club, staff or general membership at Variety Village
- Unwelcome physical contact to another athlete or coach
- Any form of bullying (verbal, physical or through electronic communication)
- Refusal to listen to instructions

If an athlete is to commit any of the above behaviours the result will be the following disciplinary actions;

- Continued inappropriate behaviours within a practice will result in the Parents being asked to pick up their athlete from the dojang.
- After two practice removals, the athlete and parent will meet with the Head Coach to discuss strategies for improvement.
- Continued behaviour may result in a suspension for a period of time or an expulsion depending on the severity of the behaviour.

Conflict Resolution

Concerns or questions can be directed to your child's coach.

Issues that arise at competitions can be charged with emotion due to the competitive nature of the event and environment. We respectfully ask that parents/guardian wait until the day after the meet before addressing the issue with the Head Coach
