Code of Conduct: Athlete / Team

Variety Village is committed to providing a safe and positive training environment in which all athletes are treated with respect. At all times, athletes of Variety Village shall conduct themselves in a fair and responsible manner.

The consumption of alcohol and, or the use of banned substances are strictly forbidden during all V.V. sponsored events including practices, camps, and competitions hosted in Toronto, in Ontario, Canada or abroad. This also extends to events where players represent V.V. in any capacity (or role) and include the whole duration of any and all functions. Any knowledge of banned substances will be reported to the Canadian Centre for Ethics in Sport.

Our athletic environment, while competitive, must also be safe, positive and conducive to the development of self-esteem, achievement of goals, sportsmanship and fun. Weightlifting Members shall refrain from comments or behaviors, which are deemed disrespectful, offensive, abusive (verbal/physical), racist or sexist.

During the course of all Team related activities and events whether at home or away from home, members of the team shall avoid any and all behavior that brings the V.V. or the Sport of Weightlifting into disrepute.

As an athlete representing V.V. you have additional responsibilities that must be followed during the camps/clinics/tournaments and competitions in which you participate. This applies to arriving on time for all functions, as well as putting a positive effort forward in all practices and games. At all times members of the team must treat all coaches, officials and volunteers with the outmost respect.

Athletes must respect the property of others. This includes at the gym, hotel, residence, on the platform, and in the change-rooms. This also extends to travel (airports), transport vehicles and personal equipment.

Team members of the V.V. shall not engage in any activity, or behavior that interferes with a competition, with any athlete or official's preparation for competition, or with behaviors that endangers the safety of the team. Failure to comply with this code may result in disciplinary action. Such action may result in the member losing privileges that come with membership with the VVAC. This includes losing the opportunity to participate in V.V. sponsored events such as clinics, camps, tournaments and involvement with National Team functions. Based on the severity of the misconduct, disciplinary action could include a suspension, or permanent expulsion from the V.V. sponsored programs.

Coach Code of Ethics/ Conduct

The Head Coach is directly responsible for the team and all the activities in which the team participates. The Head Coach is an employee of Variety Village and as such follows the policies and procedures outlined by V.V. The coaches also abide by the Code of Ethics and Conduct as outlined by the Coaches Association of Canada.

- Physical safety and health of athlete
- Coaching responsibly
- Integrity in Relationships with others
- Respect of athletes
- Honoring Sport

During the function the Coaches shall:

- Show respect to everyone
- Encourage positive behavior at the hotel/venue/during travel/meals/practice
- Model the way
- Assume responsibility of monitoring athletes in every aspect of competition/clinics/practices/camps
- Monitor and intervene in any and all disagreements between any and all members of the team
- Be involved in the discipline process should it occur
- Trouble shoot where applicable
- Be aware that the Team is a co-ed Team – no male staff shall deal with an incident in isolation- two coaches
- are to be present at all times
- No coach shall meet with an athlete of the opposite sex in a private setting

Injuries

Should an athlete sustain an injury outside of the operations and activities of the team and that injury requires medical attention or ongoing physical therapy, it is a requirement that the injury be reported to the Head Coach. This must occur immediately upon learning of the injury. We require a medical doctor's note clearing the athlete to resume training and competition to ensure it is safe for them to do so.

In instances where the injury occurs while training or competing under the team, the athlete is required to report the incident to the Head Coach immediately upon occurrence and an injury/incident report shall be filled out to record the details. Concussions and return to play procedures are outlined at www.parachutecanada.org

Behaviour

Variety Village coaches work to create a positive training environment understanding that everyone is an individual, working at their own pace in a team setting. There are behaviours that we can not support including:

- Interrupting the coach or other team members during their training
- Disrespect of any member of Variety Village, the Team or any member of O.W.A.
- Negative or rude comments directed at any member of the club, staff or general membership at Variety Village
- Unwelcome physical contact to another athlete or coach
- Any form of bullying (verbal, physical or through electronic communication)
- Refusal to listen to instructions
- Use of and or distributing performance enhancement drug(s)

Should an athlete commit any of the above behaviours the result will be the following disciplinary actions;

- Continued inappropriate behaviours within a practice will result in the athlete being asked to leave the platform
- After two practice removals, the athlete will meet with the Head Coach to discuss strategies for improvement.
- Continued behaviour may result in a suspension for a period of time or an expulsion depending on the severity of the behaviour.
(use and or distributing performance enhancement drugs will result in an expulsion)
